AUGUST

The month of August is dedicated to The Immaculate Heart of Mary. The entire month falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical color green. This symbol of hope is the color of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. It is used in the offices and Masses of Ordinary Time.

The Maritime World: We pray for all those who work and live from the sea, among them sailors, fishermen and their families.

TELEVISED MASS

For those who are unable to attend Mass at Sacred Heart Church, a daily televised Mass is available through Salt & Light Catholic Media Foundation (www.saltandlighttv.org) through VisionTV, also online (www.DailyTVMass.com) as well as www.ewtn.com

YOUNG-YOUTH CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH

Chapter One

Man is Receptive to God

6. Can we grasp God at all in concepts? Is it possible to speak about him meaningfully?

Although the men are limited and the infinite greatness of God never fits into finite human concepts, we can nevertheless speak rightly about God. (39-43, 48)

In order to express something about God, we use imperfect images and limited notations. And so everything we say about God is subject to the reservation that our language is not equal to God's greatness. Therefore we must constantly purify and improve our speech about God.

PRAY THE ROSARY WITH CARDINAL COLLINS

The last Saturday of every month, Serra International hosts a virtual global Rosary for vocations. In this way, Serrans from all over the world come together to prayerfully support our mission. You can join too. This month's rosary will be led by Serra International Episcopal Adviser Thomas Cardinal Collins, Archbishop of Toronto, on August 29, 2020 at 9:00 a.m. To join our rosary from your computer, tablet or smartphone, go to: <https://global.gotomeeting.com/join/314315981> or call 1 (647) 497-9380 Access Code: 314-315-981.

Don't miss this opportunity to pray with Serra International's wonderful and dedicated Episcopal Adviser, Cardinal Collins.

CHURCH COST

A lady once said to a friend, "our church costs too much, they are always asking for money." Her friend replied some time ago a little boy was born in our home. He cost me a lot of money from the beginning. He had a big appetite he needed clothing, medicine, toys, and even a puppy. He then went to school which costs more money; later he went to college and that was another small fortune. In his senior year of college, he died and since the funeral, he has not cost me a penny! Now, which do you think I would rather have? After a significant time had lapsed she continued. "As long as the church lives it will cost. If it dies for want of support, it will cost us nothing. Therefore, I am going to give and pray with everything I have to keep the church founded by Jesus, my church, our church alive. No matter how much I sacrifice for the church, I will never sacrifice more than Jesus did to give the church and it's saving sacraments to me."

ST. BERNARD, ABBOT & DOCTOR OF THE CHURCH

St. Bernard (1090-1153) was born near Dijon and died in Clairvaux, France. He was of a noble family and received a careful education in his youth. With his father, brother and thirty noblemen he entered the Benedictine monastery of Citeaux. Two years later he led a group of monks to establish a house at Clairvaux, and became its abbot. The monastic rule which he perfected at Clairvaux became the model for 163 monasteries of the Cistercian reform. He was a theologian, poet, orator, and writer. He is sometimes considered as a Father of the Church.

ST. PIUS X, POPE

The future Pope-Saint of the twentieth century was born at Riese in Venetia on June 2, 1835, his name, Joseph Sarto. After ordination at the age of twenty-three (by special dispensation), he labored for 17 years as a parish priest, then as bishop of Mantua, and in 1892 was advanced to the metropolitan see of Venice with the honorary title of patriarch. On August 4, 1903, he was elected Pope, "a man of God who knew the unhappiness of the world and the hardships of life, and in the greatness of his heart wanted to comfort everybody."

THE QUEENSHIP OF BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, MEMORIAL

With the certainty of faith we know that Jesus Christ is king in the full, literal, and absolute sense of the word; for He is true God and man. This does not, however, prevent Mary from sharing His royal prerogatives, though in a limited and analogous manner; for she was the Mother of Christ, and Christ is God; and she shared in the work of the divine Redeemer, in His struggles against enemies and in the triumph He won over them all. From this union with Christ the King she assuredly obtains so eminent a status that she stands high above all created things; and upon this same union with Christ is based that royal privilege enabling her to distribute the treasures of the kingdom of the divine Redeemer. And lastly, this same union with Christ is the fountain of the inexhaustible efficacy of her motherly intercession in the presence of the Son and of the Father.

Without doubt, then, does our holy Virgin possess a dignity that far transcends all other creatures. In the eyes of her Son she takes precedence over everyone else. In order to help us understand the preeminence that the Mother of God enjoys over all creation, it would help to remember that from the first moment of her conception the holy Virgin was filled with such a plenitude of grace as to surpass the graces enhancing all the saints. Recall what our predecessor Pius IX, of blessed memory, wrote in his Bull Ineffabilis Deus: "More than all the angels and all the saints has God ineffable freely endowed Mary with the fullness of the heavenly gifts that abound in the divine treasury; and she, preserving herself ever immaculately clean from the slightest taint of sin, attained a fullness of innocence and holiness so great as to be unthinkable apart from God Himself, a fullness that no one other than God will ever possess."

Spurred on by piety and faith, may we glory in being subject to the rule of the Virgin Mother of God; she bears the royal sceptre in her hand, while her heart is ever aflame with motherlove.

THE COMMEMORATION OF STS. TIMOTHY, HIPPOLYTUS & SYMPHORIAN

During the pontificate of Pope Melchior (311-314), Timothy of Antioch came to Rome and preached the Gospel. The prefect of the city, Tarquin, placed him under arrest and after a period of imprisonment ordered that he be scourged three times because he refused to sacrifice to the gods. After further excruciating torments Timothy was beheaded. At Ostia, the bishop, St. Hippolytus, was a man of exceptional culture. Because he was an outstanding witness to the faith, he was bound hand and foot by Emperor Alexander and cast into a deep pit filled with water; thereby he obtained the crown. Not far away Christians buried his body. At Autun the youthful Symphorian was brought to judgment under Emperor Aurelian (270-275). His mother urged perseverance: "My son, think of eternal life. Raise your glance to heaven and behold your eternal King! Your life will not be taken from you, but transformed into a better one!"

RECEIVING JESUS IN HOLY COMMUNION

For the Saints, daily Communion fulfills an imperative need for Life and Love, corresponding to Jesus' divine desire to give Himself to be every soul's Life and Love. We should not forget that Holy Thursday was the day for which Jesus had "longed". Hence, the holy Cure of Ars said emphatically, "Every Consecrated Host is made to burn itself up with love in a human heart." And St. Therese of Lisieux wrote to another Sister, "It is not in order to occupy a golden ciborium that Jesus everyday comes down from Heaven, but it is to find another heaven, namely, our soul, in which He takes his delight," and when a soul well able to do so does not want to receive Jesus into his heart, "Jesus weeps." "Therefore," continues St. Therese, "when the devil cannot enter with sin into a soul's sanctuary, he wants the soul to be at least unoccupied, with no Master, and well removed from Holy Communion." St. Margaret Mary Alacoque advises; "We can scarcely give our enemy, the devil, greater joy than when we withdraw from Jesus, Who takes away the power that the enemy has over us." Fr. Stefano Manelli
