DECEMBER 6, 2020 - SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

SECOND SUNDAY IN ADVENT, 6 DECEMBER 2020

READING COMMENT

The Word of God wants to touch our hearts today, because God's grace enters our lives. The paths of our lives should be straightened and our hearts should be open to God's consolation, as the prophet Isaiah and Saint John the Baptist tell us today. God wants to be with us everywhere, especially where sin has increased, where a person suffers, and does not feel confident. Let us listen to the word of God, so that it will prepare us to meet Jesus today, on the day of our death and in eternity.

PASTORAL MESSAGES

Dear Parishioners and all those who pray in our church, we ask that you experience Advent devoutly and in the joy of the spirit, preparing for the celebration of the Memorial of the Birth of Jesus Christ and for His second coming. 2. Today we remember St. Nicholas, Bishop of Myra, who lived in the 3rd and 4th centuries, who became famous for his pastoral zeal and special care for the material needs of others. Following his example, we give each other small gifts that are an expression of our love and friendship. 3. On Tuesday, December 8 Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we invite you to the Holy Mass at 19:00. 4. We wish all the birthday and anniversary celebrants of this week an abundance of God's favors and the protection of the Blessed Mother on each day. Have a nice and blessed Sunday. 5. We remind you to cover your mouth and nose in the church. 6. This week's patron is: - on Monday, December 7 -St. Ambrose (ca. 340-397), bishop of Milan, pastor, theologian, doctor of the Church
